

Anchors in Resilient Communities: East Bay, CA

- First ARC Stakeholder Meeting
- ARC hires TDC for 18 months to help convene meetings and do an assessment of assets and capacities
- ARC Mission and Values developed
- Public Learning Sessions begin

2015

- Regional Food Systems Project launch
- Community Ownership focus
- ARC Evaluation Workgroup and Materials developed: Logic Model etc.

2017

- First official Steering Committee Meeting
- Regional Food System Project workgroup + pivot
- Evaluation part 2 proposal
- Emerging project ID

2019

2013 + 2014

* Denise engages Gary in a conversation about partnering to build a multi-stakeholder table to address community wealth, health and climate resilience

2016

- TDC Assessment findings are presented. Areas of opportunity for ARC: 1. Local/Regional Food; 2. Clean Energy Investment; 3. Green Business Enterprises
- Regional Food System Project business partner identified
- Guiding Principles articulated
- ARC Evaluation begins

2018

- Governance structure defined
- Communications platform developed
- Regional Food System Mapping and Assessments (Workforce, Value Chain) developed and presented

Emerald Cities
COLLABORATIVE
America empowered.

